LICENSING ELIGIBILITY

Before issuing a license to an individual, the individual must present one of the following documents to the municipality indicating that the individual's presence in the United States is authorized under federal law.

*Check the box next to the document indicating lawful presence.

	An Arizona driver license issued after 1996 or an Arizona non-operating identification license.
	A driver license issued by a state that verifies lawful presence in the United States. (See overview of States' Driver's License Requirements)
	A birth certificate or delayed birth certificate issued by any state, territory, or possession of the United States.
	A United States certificate of birth abroad.
	A United States Passport.
	A foreign passport with a United States visa
	An I-94 form with a photograph
	A United States citizenship and immigration services employment authorization document of refuge travel document.
	A United States certificate of naturalization.
	A United States certificate of citizenship.
	A tribal certificate of Indian blood.
	A tribal or bureau of Indian affairs affidavit of birth.

This provision does not apply to an individual, if all of the following apply:

1. The individual is a citizen of a foreign country, or if at the time of application, the individual resides in a foreign country.
2. The benefits that are related to the license do not require the individual to be present in the United States in order to receive those benefits.
